Entry Procedures:

Upon arrival you will report to the ground floor reception to be issued a visitor pass. Please arrive in good time before the training starts to avoid inconvenience/delays.

You will wait for the host in the lounge located on the ground floor. The host will escort you to the training room.

Please note EMA operates a strict security policy. Failing to respect the rules stated below may result in access to the building being denied.

For your information, external participants entering EMA premises are required to:

- Be accompanied by the trainer or a designated staff member at all times to move through the building and to and from the meeting room.
- Wear around the neck the lanyard provided with your access card details visible for the duration of your visit to the EMA. (Please, return it to reception desk on your way out).
- Remain in the close proximity to the training room during coffee/lunch breaks, i.e. utilise restrooms and break-out areas next to the training room.
- In order to respect confidentiality, refrain from entering any meeting rooms, under any circumstances, other than the one designated for the event you are attending.
